PULASKI, TENN.

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 23, 1866.

HALF SHEET.

We print several hundred half sheets this week, in addition to our regular full size issue, in order to supply an unexpected demand.

R. PIERCE BROWN.—The best Railroad Conductor "the world ever saw" spent a part of Wednesday and Thursday in town. May he live always.

SPRING, 1866.—M. Thannhouser & Co., at the portable store house on the "old Bell Tavern corner" advertise a new spring and summer stock of goods in this paper, and extend an invitation to everybody to come and see them.

CORRECTION.—It is due to the firm of L. Rosenau & Co., to say that they had nothing to do with the "cotton stealing" operation mentioned last week. They request us to say that their's is the portable house situated at the old "Ezell Corner," and in which our amiable and gentlemanly friend Charlie Smith operates.

BLOODED STOCK.—Wm. Perry, Esq., advertises in this paper one of the best horses in America, if we are to judge from his description and pedigree. He is a grand son of Boston, the sire of Lexington and Lecompte, two of the fastest turf horses in the world, and his grand-dam was the famous Rosalie Somers, dam of Revenue, Financier, &c., themselves world-renowned. Read the card referred to.

Atlanta Medical College.

This prosperous and popular institution is advertised in this paper. We doubt if medical students could find more or better facilities for a thorough medical education anywhere else, than this school affords.

Our well known friend and fellow-citizen, Dr. S. H. STOUT, is one of the Professors, and it is a sufficient recommendation to the balance of them to say that they rank with him in intellectual capacity, as well as in those peculiar social qualifications for which he is so much esteemed, and which belong to the truly educated Southern gentleman.

LIVERY STABLE.—When weary of life—its burdens and vexations—there is no recreation more delightful than a gallop or a drive round town and out among the fields and meadows. A moonlight stroll with one's sweetheart isn't half so refreshing as a morning ride on a gallant steed. Neither is this half so pleasant as an evening drive with your loved one. Try it, will you? JIM JACKSON will furnish you a fiery Pegasus—fleet-limbed and beautiful.

"And, not all the pleasures that poets may praise, Not the building walls in the hall-room's blaze, Can the wild and fearless joy exceed Of a drive with your sweetheart and a fleet-limbed steed."

JIM says so, in his advertisement, and you know advertisements don't lie, if men do, sometimes.

The Way to Select Flour.

In selecting flour, first look to the color. If it is white, with a yellowish, straw-colored tint, buy it. If it is white, with a bluish cast, or with white specks in it, refuse it. Second, examine its adhesiveness; wet and knead a little of it between your fingers: if it works soft and sticky it is poor. Third, throw a little lump of dried flour against a smooth surface; if it falls like powder it is bad. Fourth, squeeze the some of the flour tightly in your hand; if it retains the shape given by the pressure, that, too, is a good sign. It is said to buy flour that will stand all these tests. These modes are given by old flour dealers, and they pertain to a matter that concerns everybody—the staff of life.

At the last annual communication of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, held at Newburn, a resolution was adopted declaring all negro Masonic Lodges clandestine, and the members thereof suspicious.

BREVITIES AND NEWS ITEMS.

A Washington report says the President will veto the Civil Rights bill.

A son of Brigham Young is in Washington urging the admission of Utah as a State.

The dispatches tell us that "Hon. R. T. Carter, of this State, has been made Secretary of Arizona."

Some papers are advocating the election of Gen. Bragg as President of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad.

It is estimated that nearly a million of men are ready to move for the liberation of Ireland upon orders to march.

Major General J. S. Negley has announced himself as a candidate for Congress in the twenty-second district of Pennsylvania.

Dr. JOSEPH CROSS, for many years a devoted minister among the Methodists was ordained an Episcopal minister by Bishop Quintard at Nashville last week.

It is said that the opinion of the Supreme Court has been made up on the case that was argued last week, and that it will decide that the trial of civilians by military commissions is unconstitutional.

A joint resolution has been introduced into the U. S. Senate appropriating $12,000 for the publication of the medical and surgical history of the rebellion, which was referred to the Committee on Printing.

C. W. Howard and Judge Shaffer, of California, have the largest dairy in the world. Their farm is on the seacoast, twenty-five miles west of San Francisco, and covers seventy-one thousand acres.

The Nashville Banner of the 20th says: "After diligent inquiry at military headquarters, our reporters learn that the expected consignment of gubernatorial assassins from Grenada, Miss., has not yet come to hand."

It is the general belief that the Secretary of State, by direction of the President, will this week issue a proclamation relative to Fenian movements in this country. Troops have been ordered to exposed and prominent points on the Canadian frontier.

NEW ORLEANS now has a population larger, by sixty thousand, than ever before. Galveston and other Texan cities are full to overflowing; and the same is said of Memphis, Mobile, Montgomery, Atlanta, and all the principal towns of the South-west.

The American schooner, Wilson Crawford, has been seized by the Mexican Government because some powder was found on board. The captain was sentenced to ten years penal labor, but was pardoned by the Emperor.

EDUCATION does not mean going to school in your boyhood, or college in your youth; but it means to take your mind and make it the instrument of conveying knowledge and good impressions to other minds, as well as being yourself made happy.

GEN. SHERMAN has written a letter, which Gen. Grant indorses, recommending the employment of Indians on the frontier and on the prairies, as mounted scouts, relieving our cavalry from harassing duty, which involves a large expense when they are employed.

The Dublin correspondent of the New York Times says that the search for Stephens has become very keen and determined. It is believed that he is in Dublin, and the police are almost certain of speedily arresting him. It is supposed he has managed to escape them by a continual change of residence.

HENRY S. FOOT states in his "War of the Rebellion," that Jeff. Davis vetoed more bills during the short provisional regime than all the Presidents of the United States put together, from Washington to Lincoln inclusive, and no attempt to pass a single bill over his head was ever made.

GEN. HOOD has requested a discontinuance of collections for the purchase of a homestead for him in Texas. He says, being fortunately placed in a situation where he can earn a competency by his own exertions, he cannot consent to receive the assistance contemplated by the movement in his behalf.

It is proposed that a joint resolution will soon be introduced, discharging the Committee of Fifteen from the further consideration of the Southern States, and that immediately after its passage, which is said to be assured, the credentials of the Southern members will be properly referred. It is said that a majority of both Houses is in favor of this course.

The Georgia Legislature adjourned on the 13th inst. The Homestead Bill was passed but vetoed by the Governor.

The Bill giving the negro all the rights of a white man except to vote and sit on a jury, was passed.

A Bill was passed appropriating $200,000 for indigent maimed soldiers and their families.

HENRY S. FOOT is in Washington, and a special to the Cincinnati Commercial says he is "urging the passage, by the Senate, of the resolution of his son-in-law, giving the South universal amnesty for universal suffrage. It is well understood that Foot wrote the resolutions."

Senator Stewart, of Nevada, is Mr. Foot's son-in-law.

DEATHS.

ALICE HARWOOD died at Cedar Bluff College, on the 4th of March, 1866, of congestion of the brain. Aged twelve years and ten months.

Like a gleam of pure sunshine, that gilds for a moment the western horizon, then quickly glides from view beneath the sombre shades of eve, so was thy evanescent stay with us, dear Alice. With sad hearts and brimming eyes we gaze upon thy vacant chair.

We miss thee, darling, miss thee, Our hearts are filled with pain, For we know that thou hast left us To ne'er return again.

That angel forms were waiting, Ere death had closed thine eyes, To wait thy gentle spirit To its home beyond the skies.

And, for thy loving Mother, Whose heart is bowed with grief, We pray our Gracious Father, To quickly send relief.

Oh! teach her resignation; Let Seraph whispers tell That God is just and righteous, "And doeth all things well."
